Light at the end of the tunnel? We are working our way out of lockdown. So, all work depends on the rules set by the Government. We will continue with Postal Auctions at the moment. We are waiting to see if Autumn Stampex is live or virtual. Dates could change or it could change to a Public Sale. Watch the website for all up to date information and any changes.

I need to say sorry to all the email clients. I did not realise my new email colin@avhstampauctions.co.uk would go into client's 'Spam/Trash' folder. This did mean a delay in people getting their invoices. I will continue to use the colin@ email so please make me a 'safe sender' or 'not spam'. I will then appear in your inbox as usual. We will continue to process small lots first, followed by larger orders and albums. However, box lots and lots which need packaging will be processed later. So please bear with us in getting lots out to you. Thank you to all our clients who did wait and allowed us time to process their purchases.

This auction is a great mix of lots, as usual Album Pages at the beginning, interesting small selections and collections. Mixed World lots contains New Ideal, Junior Triumph Album, SG KGV Red Crown Album (Reserved about 10% of Catalogue). Selections of on and off paper waiting to be sorted. Thematics include Graf Zeppelins, Ships, Royalty, Europa, etc. The one country lots starts with a great Aden Dhows set to 10r m/m. Strong sections of many countries throughout. Also, a good run through of KGV mint and used as requested. Great Britain has some interesting collections including lot 2119 which is a selection Q Victoria Catalogued £12,000 with Estimate of only £1,000. Also, many sets, singles, Essay's, Postal History, postmarks, etc. At the end you will find a run of Signed GB covers and Silver Coin covers. Not something you see every day.

We hope you find looking through the catalogue fun and find something to bid on. As before do not miss out, get your bids in early. You can always check up on how your bids are doing, before the auction closes.

Happy bidding Colin.
